6:15pm-6:30pm Q&A

In today's economy, the mandate for business leaders is clear: do more with less. As AI becomes a non-negotiable tool for the modern enterprise, the focus has shifted from hype to cost-efficiency and practical results. For HR professionals, this evolution is the new blueprint for talent, budgeting, and operations.

Join HKPMA and Preface for an exclusive deep dive into how Chinese AI is winning on efficiency, visual generation, and autonomous execution.

Why Attend?

Equip yourself with the insights needed to advise your board on AI adoption and understand the infrastructure that will power your workforce.

What We Will Cover:

- Cost-Efficiency as an Edge - Why Chinese AI is currently the most attractive option for business deployment due to its 80% cost advantage.
- Mastering Multimodal Content - How China seized the lead in video/image generation.
- The "Agentic" Leap - Witness the shift from chatbots to autonomous agents capable of managing 100+ sub-agents to execute complex workflows.
- The Open-Source Advantage - Understanding the "Open-Weight" strategy and why it makes AI more accessible and customizable for your specific company needs.
- Resilience & Talent - How the industry is thriving despite hardware constraints and what the influx of AI talent means for the GBA job market.
